Summer learning activities

www.asdk12.org/parents/summer.asp

During the summer, students need to continue learning and practicing new skills. Adults are encouraged to take an interest in children's summer activities. Whether it's summer camps, reading together, keeping a summer activity journal, exploring or using math skills to calculate the distance to a new adventure, there are endless learning possibilities. Check the district's online learning activities page for ideas.

Free summer meals

www.asdk12.org

The Anchorage School District and Food Bank of Alaska are participating in the Summer Food Service Program. The federal program provides free meals to any child age 18 or under at designated facilities. Dates, times and locations vary. Log on to the district's website for a complete schedule or call the Food Bank at 222-3112.

2010-11 School Year

The first day of school for 2010-11 is August 18 for grades 2-12 and August 24 for K-1.
